Description

Godovytysya. Church of All Saints

Just south of Lviv, there is a rather small village of Godovytysya. It is located just mere 2km away from the road that connects Lviv and Pustomyty, and has a monument that is slowly decaying - the Church of All Saints located on the shore of a picturesque pond. It is one of the brilliant creations of the famous Lviv architect Bernard Meretin. Consecrated in 1774 the Church was a model for the following works of the architect such as in Buchach, Horodenka, Monastyrysk, Busk, Lopatyn, Berezdivtsi, Lviv...

Another famous sculptor Johann Georg Pinzel had created a sculpture for the altar part of the temple, which is stored today in the Olesko Castle. Six decorated vases that crown the façade of the building are probably all that are left in Godovytysya from the original creation of a brilliant master.
